§ 1 Subject matter

Hierl & Müller enables the user to access the e-kurier.net courier exchange during the licence agreement period. e-kurier.net is a platform through which authorised users exchange information on shipping space or freights and gain access to further information in the courier sector.

The right to place freight offers and acceptance of order placements is not to be activated till we checked your credit assessment and financial background. The decision according that is exclusively within our discretion. Multiple payment obstructions or deterioration in credit assessments may cause a withdrawal of the arrayed right as a safeguard for others. The deactivation of the above mentioned right does not entitle the user to claim for an extraordinary termination of the contract.

§ 2 Trial period

New users will receive a trial period free of charge by Hierl & Müller for a certain period. This trial period starts on the day of signing the contract followed by two full months.

Your free of charge period will thus end on

§ 3 Period of licence agreement

The agreement will come into force on

The duration of the licence agreement is initially fixed at 6 months, which means until

None of the parties to the agreement shall be able to cancel the agreement before it comes into force nor during these 6 months. After 6 months have expired, the contract is automatically renewed with the period of your choice (§ 4), if not cancelled in writing at least one month before date of expiry. From this point the agreement can be cancelled prior to a term of 4 weeks before the end of current term.

§ 4 Subscription fee

the subscription fee per month is € 66,00 ex VAT. The subscription fee is always due in advance for the minimum period of 3 months. Due date is the first day of the month in which the contract begins, and afterwards according to the period chosen below.

As an alternative the user can choose to subscribe for 1 or 2 years with advance payment. This will result in 10% reduction for the one year subscription and 20% reduction for the two year subscription.

The subscription charges are to be paid by direct debit authorisation
